I filed my 410 form with my local filing office on 7-16-12. They mentioned nothing about dating "date qualified as committee" and stated I had to file a copy and original to the state. If there were any issues I would receive it back and have it amended. I wanted to avoid that problem and find out for myself before I sent it out. After figuring out what the date signified I realized I was late in filing. I quickly went back and amended the form in my local filing office and sent the original to the state as soon as I could.

I'm very embarrassed. I tried to do everything correctly and consequently turned my 410 in late. This is my first time filing and quickly corrected my mistake as soon as I saw what it was.

Jose Torres
