Re: Signed Criteria for PD 452

Dear Linda:

I am in receipt of plan check corrections dated August 14, 1990 for Plan Check 90-2642 attached hereto. In these corrections, you request submission of a master sign program allocating the amount of sign area for each tenant. I am assuming that this is a supplement to the already approved signage program which was a part of the PD permit.

The criteria shall read as follows:

"Tenants shall be allowed, in a location generally contiguous to tenants space, signage consisting of ultimately illuminated, individually mounted channel letters. A total of 16.50 sq. ft. of signage shall be permitted for each leasable unit with average lineal footage of 20 lineal ft. (one building side) and/or multiple thereof for tenants leasing more than one unit as shown on the attached floor plan. The total signage may be divided between the north and south facing frontages of a suite and/or east or west frontages for corner units but shall on no account exceed 16.50 sq. ft. of signage per 20 lineal feet of suite frontage. The maximum letter height shall be 18", the minimum letter height shall be 12", the maximum length shall be 11 ft. per 20 lineal feet. Signage shall be situated in the middle 80% of the suite frontage. Lettering shall be helvetica-type; color to be Rohm Hass Plexiglas, White."

The total signage permitted for this project is 384 sq. ft.; 49 sq. ft. has been allocated to the monument sign, leaving 334.5 sq. ft. of approved signage area to be allocated among the tenants. As illustrated on the attached floor plan, there are a total of 20 units in this building, averaging 20 lineal ft. of frontage (south facing). Assuming that each 20 ft. unit is allowed 11 lineal ft. of signage at 18" in height, each unit may have 16.50 sq. ft. of signage, accounting for 330 sq. ft. of signage area.

Because of multiple suite leasing, we would anticipate that actual signage on the building would be somewhat less than the 330 sq. ft. of signage provided for in this criteria. Rear (north facing) signage will be permitted pursuant to the City code. Corner units will also be permitted signage on east and west facing frontages as per the sign criteria previously approved.

Sincerely,
