CITY OF OXNARD CALIFORNIA

America Recycles Day is Nov. 15, 2016, but the City of Oxnard is celebrating all month long! Help us reduce, reuse and recycle our way to a cleaner, more eco-friendly tomorrow by bringing your cans for recycling to the Del Norte Regional Recycling and Transfer Station's Buy Back Center, 111 S. Del Norte Blvd.

For every pound of California Refund Value (CRV) aluminum cans recycled, you will receive a special redemption value of $1.67 during the month of November. The Buy Back Center is open from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Saturday. There is a CRV limit of 100 pounds per day (not valid for licensed recyclers).

America Recycles Day is the only nationally recognized day dedicated to encouraging Americans to reduce, reuse, recycle and buy recycled products. For more information, call (805) 385-8060.

Tickets on sale for Nov. 10 “Murder on the Nile” performance at Oxnard PACC

Starting at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 10, at the Performing Arts and Convention Center, 800 Hobson Way, Aquila Theatre will stage Murder on the Nile by one of the greatest mystery writers in world literature - Agatha Christie. This brilliant new production features a masterful whodunit and Aquila's clever signature style.

Tickets are available for $35 and $45 by clicking here or calling (805) 486-2424.

Murder on the Nile, Agatha Christie's own staging of her famous novel, Death on the Nile, is set on a paddle steamer cruising the legendary Nile River in 1940s Egypt. The passengers aboard are abuzz when the famous heiress, Kay Ridgeway, and her penniless new husband, Simon Mostyn, board the ship. Class, money and reputation are all at stake in one way or another for the passengers, and before they know it deceit, theft and murder quickly make waves on the river. Spurned lover Jacqueline De Severac, protective uncle Canon Pennefather, a troubled German Doctor and a host of colorful and mysterious characters add to the drama and suspense of this classic Agatha Christie mystery.

Who can be trusted? Who holds the truth? Who is a suspect? Whodunit?

In its 25th anniversary season, Aquila Theatre brings its innovative touch to this deliciously dangerous murder mystery, with brilliant direction, superb acting, thrilling physicality and stunning designs. Aquila's Murder on the Nile will be a classic all over again.

City of Oxnard accepting Veterans Day entry applications through Nov. 7, 2016

Veterans Day is right around the corner on Friday, Nov. 11, 2016. The City of Oxnard will accept applications through Monday, Nov. 7, from groups interested in participating in the parade or hosting a booth at the ceremony.

Download the application online at www.oxnard.org/veteransday2016, or stop by the Oxnard City Clerk's Office at 300 W. Third St., Fourth Floor, during regular business hours.

Applications must be submitted to Oxnard City Clerk Daniel Martinez by mail, in person or by email at daniel.martinez@oxnard.org by Monday, Nov. 7, 2016.

For questions, call the Oxnard City Clerk's Office at (805) 385-7803 or email daniel.martinez@oxnard.org.

City accepting vendor applications and sponsorships for Dec. 3 Tamale Festival

The Tamale Festival will return to downtown Oxnard on Saturday, Dec. 3, 2016, from 9 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. Join us at Plaza Park, 500 S. C St., for live music, arts and crafts, a cumbia dance competition and, of course, mouthwatering, authentic tamales!

Arts and crafts vendors (non-food vendors) interested in participating in the festival can pick up applications at the Recreation Division of the Cultural and Community Services Department at 305 W. Third St., or download applications by clicking here. The deadline for applications is Monday, Nov. 21, 2016. Applications can be submitted via email to oxnardrec@oxnard.org or dropped off at the Recreation Division at 305 W. Third St.

Organizations or persons interested in becoming a festival sponsor can download applications online by clicking here. For sponsorship questions, contact Jessy Tapia at jessy.tapia@oxnardpal.org or (805) 901-3878.

For more information about the Tamale Festival, contact Yolanda Pina, festival organizer, at yolanda.pina@oxnard.org or (805) 385-7995.

Public invited to graduation for Oxnard Fire Department new recruits

The Oxnard Fire Department is proud to announce the 2016 graduation ceremony scheduled for 10 a.m. Friday, Nov. 4, 2016, at the Police Activities League (PAL) gym, 350 S. K St.

The public is invited to attend the free event.

Following the ceremony, the nine fire academy graduates will participate in a demonstration to show off their skills. The recruits were exposed to an extensive 16-week academy designed to prepare them for a dynamic career as an Oxnard firefighter. The Oxnard Fire Department responded to approximately 18,000 calls for service last year from eight stations. The Department also staffs Hazardous Materials, Urban Search and Rescue and Water Rescue units.

For more information, contact Battalion Chief Sergio Martinez at (805) 385-7720 or sergio.martinez@oxnard.org.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Oxnard Police Department hosts first annual Halloween Spooktacular

On Sunday, Oct. 30, 2016, a crowd of about 400 parents and children visited the Oxnard Police Station for the first annual Halloween Spooktacular! Visitors enjoyed a night of trick-or-treating on the lobbies of the first and second floors, which were decorated in true Halloween spirit. The event was a success thanks to the support of City staff, volunteers and sponsors.
