Zoning Map

The City of Oxnard Zoning Map is a visual representation of zoning designations as described in Chapters 18 & 19 of the Oxnard City Code. This Zoning Map also illustrates obligations of adopted plans. Zoning is a division of a jurisdiction into districts (zones) wherein permissible uses are designated and development standards are defined. Zoning is the principal tool for implementing the general plan by balancing land use categories and standards into regulations.