South Oxnard Branch - Thursdays, Sept. 26, Oct. 31, Nov. 28, 4:30 p.m.

If you are in 7th through 12th grade and are interested in making a difference in upcoming library events, join the Teen Council! This will be a fun experience and it looks great on a college application! For more information - (805) 385-7532

Adult Literacy Program - (805) 385-7536

The Adult Literacy Program at the Oxnard Public Library provides FREE personalized tutoring to adults who would like to improve their reading or writing skills. The program is free to any English speaking adult, age 18 or older, who can meet with a volunteer tutor once a week at the Main Library. Each learning session lasts approximately one hour. Adult learners and tutors must commit to at least three months of working together.

Adult Google Class

4th Thursdays, 4 p.m. - Main Branch Homework Center

Learn Gmail and the applications. Each month we will introduce new applications using library laptops.

English Conversation Group

Wednesdays, 10:30 - 11:30 a.m. - Main Branch Homework Center

The English Conversation group meets every Wednesday to discuss different topics in English in a friendly, supportive environment.

Volunteer Opportunities

There are many volunteer opportunities whether it is teaching adults to read, helping children with their homework assignments, or being a VolunTeen. For more information, please call us at: (805) 385-7507 for the Main Library, (805) 247-8941 for the South Oxnard Branch Library and (805) 385-8108 for the Colonia Library.
