

2019-2020 Arts In Public Places Grant Applicant List

Grant Type	Category	Organization	Program Name	Description
Project Grant	Collaborative Group	Behind Enemy Lines	Phoenix	Oxnard Rock Band "Behind Enemy Lines" will release an album titled "Phoenix". A portion of the proceeds will be donated to Oxnard Mariachi youth Music program Inlaketech to help the next generation of Oxnard Musicians.
Project Grant	Collaborative Group	Forkspace	The Showcase: The Muddler	Four original one-acts by local playwrights, actors and directors performed in the city of Oxnard.
Project Grant	Emerging Artists	Arcelia Martinez	The Nursery	A short film that will depict a story of a young man with mental issues and how easily it can be overlooked in our society causing life-altering change.
Project Grant	Emerging Artists	Martin Alberto Gonzalez	Contrahistorias	Contrahistorias is a series of workshops that provide Oxnard youth an opportunity to express themselves and critically analyze social injustices using counter-stories via traditional and nontraditional forms of story telling.
Project Grant	Mid-Career Artists	Damien Smith A.K.A. Roc C	Broadway Joe	A biopic musical composition of the hip hop genre, set in an autobiographical format. The subject matter revolves around the experiences of Roc C growing up in Oxnard between the years of 1994-2005.
Project Grant	Mid-Career Artists	Jace Martin	Be Seen, Be Heard Video & Music	Program todiscuss and practice the basic teachings of music production, engineering, singing, songwriting, copyright, distribution, and promotions.
Project Grant	Mid-Career Artists	Mauricio H. Girón	Mariachi Clinics	Mariachi clinics include learning various instruments which include: guitar vihuela, guitarron, voice, trumpet, violin, and harp. Learn traditional mariacih songs from a professional and experienced music instructor.
Project Grant	Mid-Career Artists	René Corado	Motivational Book Tour	Publish bilingual book, continue year-round educational empowerment and community service campaign.

2019-2020 Arts In Public Places Grant Applicant List

Grant Type	Category	Organization	Description
Operating Funds	Emerging Organization	Animo Film and Theatre	ANIMO Film + Theatre presents "Mixtexo Boy" - A performance in film and theatre to celebrate diversity and promote inclusivity in the City of Oxnard and throughout Ventura County. One boy's dream brings together a community.
Operating Funds	Emerging Organization	Hip Hop Collective Group	To engage members of the community and expose them to the elements of hip-hop and associated holistic and culturally congruent art forms.
Operating Funds	Emerging Organization	Its My Imagination (IMI)	WWII Model Plane Showcase
Operating Funds	Emerging Organization	O' My Theater	Offering local young artists the unparalleled experience of live performance. We nurture our talented youth to have
Operating Funds	Emerging Organization	Oxnard Music Advocacy Group	To offer weekly instrumental music classes to parents and their children.
Operating Funds	Legacy Organization	Alma de Mexico / Lucha Inc.	Ballet Folklorico Alma de Mexico/Lucha Inc. will continue to conduct "Dancing Con Orgullo/with Pride; an Enrichment Cultural Literacy Dance Program" focused on teaching, training and showcasing traditional, regional folk dances of Mexico and presenting its participant throughout the City of Oxnard to help create a cultural bridge interwoven into the fabric of the community; by promoting artistic harmony, "Con Orgullo".
Operating Funds	Legacy Organization	Channel Islands Maritime Museum	An AIPP grant would partially support the curator and Exhibits Manager's time curating and presenting temporary exhibits, "Art Comes Alive", the annual Oxnard Union High School District Juried Exhibition, Wooden Boat Show, "Speaker Series", and community education programs for Oxnard Youth and Adults. The grant would also help underwrite supplies required for temporary exhibits and art programs from January to June 2020.
Operating Funds	Legacy Organization	Elite Theatre	Support of the "Arts for Everyone" program which provides free tickets to theater shows performed at Elite Theatre Company; and the "Educational Conservatory Program" which will give youth of Oxnard an organized program to learn about and participate in the creation of theatrical experiences; and a local playwright initiative giving country authors a workshop project for a 2021 Main Stage Production.
Operating Funds	Legacy Organization	Hueneme Bohemian / Artist Melting Pot	Pleasant Valley Historical Cemetery Pioneers Historical Mural on Etting Road in Oxnard.
Operating Funds	Legacy Organization	Juneteenth	The Juneteenth Celebration of Ventura County (JCVC) is looking to expand cultural activities which will provide resources to help sustain a growing interest in African American heritage, arts, music, and cultural activities in Oxnard. The 30th anniversary celebration of Juneteenth and other community awareness events such as MUDAPO will be the primary events planned to meet this mission.
Operating Funds	Legacy Organization	New West Symphony	New West Symphony Education Programs enrich the lives of young audiences and educate teachers, families, and parents about the importance of musical education and exposure to the community. The eMusic Van, which is an instrument "musical Petting Zoo" that travels to schools throughout Ventura County providing for some, their first opportunity to engage with such instruments. Our symphonic Adventures program titled "The Orchestra Moves", emphasizes the importance of music education for teachers, students and families of third through fifth grades in Oxnard.
Operating Funds	Legacy Organization	Oxnard Performing Arts Center Corp.	Support for the Oxnard Performing Arts Center 2020 Season of Events, which includes free or low cost concerts, lectures, film screenings, artistic classes, etc. This support also enables us to provide subsidized use of our space for our resident companies.
Operating Funds	Legacy Organization	Teatro de Las Americas	Teatro de las Americas presents Spanish language plays and theater workshops on both Spanish and English for the residents of Oxnard.