Mayor and City Councilmembers Welcome Dallas Cowboys Back to Oxnard for 2022 Training Camp

OXNARD, Calif. – Oxnard Mayor John C. Zaragoza and the City Council welcome the Dallas Cowboys back for their 16th training camp in Oxnard. The City has hosted America's Team nearly every year since 2001 for all, or a portion of, its annual training camp.

"We're always excited to host the Cowboys, and we welcome all of the visiting fans to Oxnard. Whether it's your first time here, or your 16th, we know you are going to have a great time," said Mayor Zaragoza.

The Cowboys Training Camp at the River Ridge Playing Fields (2501 Ventura Rd., Oxnard) is free and open to the public. The action starts with the Cowboys first practice on Wednesday, July 27 at 11:30 a.m. Fans are invited to all practice sessions that are open to the public, with the final one scheduled on Wednesday, August 10.

Visit Oxnard will host a free Oxnard Fan Night at The Collection at RiverPark on Thursday, July 28 at 5 p.m. with the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders and the Cowboys mascot, Rowdy!

On Saturday, July 30, beginning at 9:30 a.m., fans are invited to the camp's opening ceremony/special fan event - Cowboys Back Together Saturday Fan Fest, presented by American Airlines - as the team welcomes everyone back to training camp. The day's events include live music, Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders autograph signing, exclusive merchandise deals, prizes, giveaways and more. The opening ceremony will take place at 10:45 a.m., which will include a performance by the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders and remarks from Cowboys Owner, President and General Manager Jerry Jones before the 11:30 a.m. open practice session.

Additionally, on Monday, August 8, the team will host a Heroes Appreciation Day to show their gratitude towards military personnel, first responders and front line healthcare workers.
