Community Recognition Awards

Presented by the Community Relations Commission

BACKGROUND

The CRC proposed, and the City Council approved, the Community Recognition Awards program in 1989. These awards recognize deserving individuals and groups that continue to work to support the mission of the Community Relations Commission in the Oxnard community.

AWARDS CRITERIA

- As a citizen advisory group of the City of Oxnard, the Community Relations Commission (CRC) is empowered to:
- Promote mutual understanding and respect among all minority and non minority groups;
- Facilitate inter-group harmony through educational and cultural activities;
- Mediate prejudice, discrimination and racism; and Promote fair housing and equal employment opportunity.

ELIGIBILITY

1. Any youth, senior, individual, business, or organization that works or performs community services in Oxnard is eligible to be nominated.
2. Any person may nominate another youth, senior, individual, business, or organization. Selection Review Committee members are not eligible for nomination.

AWARDS PRESENTATION

The CRC will present the awards to the outstanding youth, senior, individual, business and organization at a City Council meeting (date to be announced) in the City Council Chambers at 305 West Third Street, Oxnard, California
